NICHOLAS A. LANGWORTHY

Representing the 23rd District of New York

Dear Mrs. [REDACTED]

Thank you for contacting me to express your opposition to the Recissions Act of 2025 (H.R.4). I appreciate the opportunity to respond.

The American people – through both the popular vote and the electoral college – overwhelmingly voted for President Trump and his agenda in the 2024 Election, and this agenda includes significantly reigning in excessive federal spending and ending diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) initiatives. On his first day in office, President Trump signed an executive order to establish the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE), to maximize government efficiency and productivity. Since its inception, DOGE has discovered billions of taxpayer dollars in waste, fraud, and abuse, particularly through the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) program.

H.R.4 follows through on these findings of wasteful spending and would rescind $9 billion in previously appropriated funds to programs including USAID and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB). I proudly supported H.R.4 when it passed the House on July 17, 2025. On July 24, 2025, President Trump signed this recissions package into law.

Our country is facing $37 trillion in debt and Americans' hard-earned tax dollars should not be used for things like Afghani opium farmers, conducting transgender studies on animals, DEI scholarships in Burma, or transgender operas in Colombia. We are going to ensure that U.S. tax dollars are used to the benefit of American citizens and national security interests, not for foreign social engineering. Furthermore, in recent years, public media outlets, including National Public Radio (NPR), have parroted Democrat talking points concerning public health, President Trump, and a variety of other issues.

This was clearly shown in a March 26, 2025, House Oversight DOGE Subcommittee hearing, where the public heard that there are 87 registered Democrats in NPR's editorial staff, and not a single Republican. In addition, the Chief Executive of NPR, Katherine Maher, had to testify about her comments calling President Trump a, "deranged racist sociopath," and NPR's one-sided reporting, such as refusing to cover the Hunter Biden laptop story prior to the 2020 Election. Public media should be unbiased, educational content, not propaganda for a political party. With countless media options now available, it's both wasteful and offensive to fund content with a documented left-wing bias, further eroding public trust in the media

Although we do not see eye to eye on H.R.4, rest assured I will keep your thoughts regarding foreign aid and public media in mind as Congress works through the Fiscal Year 2026 appropriations process.

Once again, thank you for contacting me about this important issue. Please do not hesitate to reach out with any additional questions, comments, or concerns. My door is always open, and I am honored to serve Western New York and the Southern Tier in Washington.

Sincerely,
