Subject: Response from Rep. Nicholas A. Langworthy

To:

NICHOLAS A. LANGWORTHY

Representing the 23rd District of New York

Dear

Thank you for contacting me to express your opposition to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Secretary Kristi Noem. I appreciate the opportunity to respond.

After four years of the Biden Administration, during which over 10 million individuals illegally entered the country – including over 13,000 convicted murderers and nearly 300 people on the FBI's terrorist watchlist – our immigration system was beyond broken. In President Trump's first year alone, the Administration has taken significant steps to secure the border, with encounters at the Southern Border dropping by 95% compared to the Biden Administration. Additionally, DHS has overseen the deportation of 2.6 million illegal aliens, while Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has arrested 1,416 known or suspected terrorists and more than 7,000 gang members.

That being said, I strongly believe that the recent tragedies in Minnesota must be thoroughly examined to ensure all the facts are clear and accountability is upheld. I also think Secretary Noem's comment referring to a protester who lost his life on January 24, 2026, as a domestic terrorist was out of line and unfortunate. I am looking forward to DHS Officials testifying before the House Homeland Security Committee on February 10, 2026. This hearing will allow Congress to conduct proper oversight of recent use-of-force incidents involving DHS officials and consider potential legislative changes.

Furthermore, we must work to ensure that existing immigration laws are enforced peacefully and effectively. I am encouraged that President Trump has made changes on the ground in Minnesota to lower the temperature. President Trump has tasked Tom Homan – who has served under six Presidents, including Presidents Obama and Trump – to lead this effort and restore safety to our streets. As one of the nation’s foremost experts on ICE operations, Tom Homan will work to ensure the necessary reforms are implemented on the ground.

Rest assured that should the House consider future legislation related to immigration enforcement, I will keep your thoughts in mind.

Once again, thank you for contacting me about this important issue. Please do not hesitate to reach out with any additional questions, comments, or concerns. My door is always open, and I am honored to serve Western New York and the Southern Tier in Washington

Sincerely,

Rep. Nicholas A. Langworthy
Member of Congress
