Subject: Response from Rep. Nicholas A. Langworthy

To:

NICHOLAS A. LANGWORTHY

Representing the 23rd District of New York

Dear

Thank you for contacting me to express your concerns about the Sudanese Civil War. I appreciate the opportunity to respond.

As you know, beginning in 2023, the Sudan civil war is an ongoing conflict between the Sudanese Armed Forces (SAF) and Rapid Support Forces (RSF). This civil war has cost the lives of thousands of Sudanese, displaced many more from their homes, and contributed to the rapid spread of disease and famine.

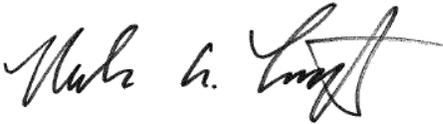

You may be interested to know that President Trump and the State Department are currently engaged with both the SAF and RSF, as well as neighboring countries, to bring a peaceful end to this conflict. In addition to bringing about a peaceful resolution, the White House is also seeking solutions to address the ongoing humanitarian conflict.

I trust in President Trump and his dedication to achieving peace through strength, to bring peace to Sudan. In his second term, he has ended multiple wars by brokering a peace deal between Israel and Hamas that secured the release of all hostages and brought stability to the region, achieving a diplomatic resolution to the long-standing conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan, obliterating Iran's nuclear capabilities, and ending the war between Israel and Iran. Rest assured that should the House consider any legislation regarding Sudan, I will keep your thoughts in mind.

Once again, thank you for contacting me about this important issue. Please do not hesitate to reach out with any additional questions, comments, or concerns. My door is always open, and I am honored to serve Western New York and the Southern Tier in Washington.

Sincerely,

Rep. Nicholas A. Langworthy
Member of Congress
